Having an intuitive connection with Horses grants us new perceptions of our world.

The frequencies of their loving heartspace can help to release history of old wounds and ideas, and can open doors to healing body, mind, and soul. Horses have the ability to see us for who we truly are; their acceptance and willingness to work with us offers new ways of moving forward in our own lives.

In this workshop we will introduce:

- * The energy Resonance of Horses and their surroundings
- * Becoming aware of our energy "borders"
- * "Shape-shifting" -animal awareness by going within
- * Share partnership and insight with Horses and the group

The horses of the Horse Power Healing Center will work on the ground with us in a relaxed, outdoor arena setting. Group Horse-Human partnership exercises and intuitive demonstrations are guided by Robin. Light refreshments will be provided. Please wear comfortable outdoor clothing and boots suitable for working in a sand arena. Note-taking materials and journals are encouraged!

Be prepared to open your heart in new ways!
